

BUSINESS IDENTITY PACKAGES

Satisfy state business requirements and give your clients peace-of-mind by utilizing these packages to formally establish your business identity. A trained and experienced receptionist, as well as an established street address, give your business instant credibility in the eyes of your clients.

MAIL

per month

Use our address rather than an unprofessional P.O. Box. This package sets you up with all you need to receive mail and establish a professional street address for your business. Our friendly staff will sort and hold mail for you so you can pick it up at your convenience.

PHONE

$75
per month

The Phone package sets you up with a unique phone number that will be answered by our professional receptionists. Our staff will answer your calls with your personalized business phrase and professionally handle all business communication.

MAIL & PHONE

per month

“Up your professional game” with the Mail and Phone package. Have your professional correspondence sent to your personal business street address. Have our friendly secretarial staff answer your phones. After-hours voice mail is provided and can be set up to outcall to any mobile device.
